

I have just become aware of this document and that opportunity for comment closes today, which does not give much chance for input . I would mainly like to reinforce if control of public land in Tasmania is to be given to people identifying as Aboriginal it should at least be local people not those centred in Hobart and only intent on a land grab and forming their own empire.

Regards

Tony Ling