

Bianca Templar

I could sit here and write a big email about connections to country, importance of land rights and sovereignty, but if you truly cared about that I wouldn't be writing this email. All I will say is, don't talk about truth and treaty, then push for our land to be in the hands of liars.